

Welcome to the virtual tour of...

In 1955 Ocean County Library opened its first branch in Long Beach Island.

The Long Beach Island branch holds more than 30,000 books and circulates more than 118,000 items annually.

“Dolphins” by Michael Shacham, three life size bronze sculptures, hangs from the clerestory ceiling.

At the Circulation Services Desk customers can check out books, pay overdue fines, pick up inter-library loan materials, place holds and request searches for missing books

The meeting room at the Long Beach Island branch can seat 75 people and hosts many art and photo displays by local artists.

The Long Beach Island computer area features seven computers for public use.

The Adult Stacks.

The music and movie section provides customers with over 1,850 music CD's and 2,100 DVD's including foreign films, feature and series videos.

The youth section.

A children-only computer area provides safe, secure computer time for children.

At the Information Services Desk a reference librarian is available to assist customers with locating materials for any assignment or question. Help is also available 24/7 on the Ocean County Library website.

The New Books Section.

The Newspaper and Periodical Section.

We hope you have enjoyed this virtual tour of the Long Beach Island branch of the Ocean County Library and invite you to visit us.

