Learn How to Plan for the Working World During Ocean County Library's 2022 Autism Resources Fair

TOMS RIVER – Job-seekers on the autism spectrum can prepare for their futures through a virtual program of the Ocean County Library 2022 Autism Resources Fair. Dianne Malley's keynote presentation will be Autism & Employment: Start Planning Now, 6:30 PM Thursday, April 7.

Dianne is the Director of the Life Course Outcomes' Transition Pathways initiative at Drexel University in Pennsylvania, a collection of efforts to improve outcomes for young adults on the autism spectrum.

Through experiences as a parent and a professional, Dianne will share strategies, tips, and tools that support positive employment outcomes and inclusion.

Registration at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events is required for this free program. Registrants will receive links for the presentation by email. Registrants who request professional development credits during signup will receive them after the program.

The Autism Resources Fair is made possible through generous donation by the Ocean County Library Foundation.
