Learn Magic from Chad Juros during Ocean County Library's 2022 Autism Resources Fair

TOMS RIVER – Magician and motivational speaker Chad Juros will perform dazzling tricks and share conjuring capability with viewers of his virtual performance at 7 PM Tuesday, April 5, as part of the Ocean County Library's 2022 Autism Resources Fair.

The fun-filled, educational show will begin with magic, mind reading, music, comedy, and virtual interaction with attendees, then transform into a workshop of simple tricks that can be performed at home.

Juros learned magic as early as age 3, while hospitalized for treatment of leukemia. His father performed magic at his bedside to distract him from pain and fear. Juros founded the Spread the Magic Foundation, which raises pediatric cancer awareness.

Juros has performed at the White House and in various spots around the world, and has appeared on Good Morning America, Criss Angel Mindfreak, Penn & Teller's FOOL US, and other televised programs.

Registration at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events is required to attend the performance. Registrants will receive links for the Zoom session by email.

The 2022 Autism Resources Fair is made possible by a generous donation from the Ocean County Library Foundation. See the full schedule of events and programs at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/autism.
