Ask a Master Gardener at the Ocean County Library Waretown Branch

RUTGERS
New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station
Cooperative Extension of Ocean County

WARETOWN – Do you have gardening questions? The Rutgers Master Gardeners of Ocean County can help you from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, August 22 at the Waretown Branch of the Ocean County Library.

Whether you are planning a new garden, want help troubleshooting plant problems, or need advice on growing, the Rutgers Master Gardeners are ready to assist. Bring your gardening questions – along with photos or samples of insects, plants, shrubs, or trees – for identification, diagnosis, and recommendations.

The Rutgers Master Gardeners are trained and certified volunteers who partner with the Rutgers Cooperative Extension. They provide Ocean County residents with free, research-based information on sustainable gardening practices, soil health, pest management, native plants, composting, and much more. No question is too big or small – whether you are a seasoned gardener or just starting out.

Registration is not required for this free program. For more information, call 609-693-5133, or stop by the branch at 112 Main Street.
